

Level 3 Health and Safety in the Workplace

This qualification examines health and safety from a supervisory perspective. Supervisors have both a legal and moral responsibility to look after the health and safety of employees. This qualification will enable managers and supervisors to improve the health and safety culture of their organisation, whatever its size or activity.

Who Should Attend

This qualification is suitable for supervisors, owners, team leaders or managers responsible for health and safety. It is a suggested prerequisite that delegates have a basic knowledge of health and safety issues, such as a Level 2 Award in Health and Safety in the Workplace qualification or equivalent.

For trainers wishing to teach Health & Safety this course would enable them to teach courses at Level 2 (with through some providers) or it would be a basis to move on to the Level 4 in Health & Safety.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course delegates should be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the main concepts of health and safety
- Show awareness of the benefits of health and safety culture
- Explain the roles and responsibilities of individuals, supervisors and management in health and safety
- Demonstrate an understanding of health and safety control and improvement strategies available to supervisors

Course Content

Delegates will receive training in the following subjects:

- Concept of health and safety
- Accidents in the workplace
- Ill health in the workplace
- Legal provisions (UK only)
- Health and safety organisation and management
- Supervising health and safety

Course Duration

The course is 3 days in duration (18 hours + exam)

Assessment Method & Certification

The assessment will be by the completion of a multiple choice question examination on the last day of the course. On successful completion of the course, delegates will receive a certificate of competence, which is valid for 3 years.

Candidates wishing to obtain a Nationally Accredited Certificate would sit the exam for the relevant Awarding Body (for the additional price of the certification and exam fee of the Awarding Body).

For this Qualification we can currently offer certification from the following Awarding Bodies:

CIEH (The Chartered Institute of Environmental Health)
